

Play by the Rules Worksheet PG-3: Scavenger Hunt

Directions:

Using your copy of Play by the Rules, work in a small group to answer the following questions. You will have 10 minutes, so develop a team strategy and work quickly ... good luck!

1. Who is the Play by the Rules mascot and how can you locate him in the book?
2. Civil or criminal? Look at the cartoon on p. 3. What type of law is involved in the top cartoon? What type of law is depicted in the bottom cartoon?
3. Look at the cartoon on p. 9. List three main differences in juvenile court and adult court.
4. List and define the classifications of crimes.
5. Look at the cartoons on p. 19. What crimes do the cartoons represent?
6. What is the criminal classification of reporting a false bomb threat to a school?
7. What is a deadly weapon?
8. In what circumstance may a juvenile possess a rifle or shotgun?

9. Look at the cartoon on p. 28. What is the bird doing that is illegal?
10. What happens if a police officer finds cigarettes in your possession?
11. Do your parents have a right to the money you earn?
12. What chapter addresses “Animal Cruelty”?
13. Between what ages are you required to attend school?
14. What are the four roles of a school resource officer (SRO)?
15. School administrators may search your locker or book bag if they have _____.
16. List three things Bama Jack is doing correctly in the cartoon on p. 45.
17. In order to get a job, you will need a work permit if you are between the ages of ____ and ____.
18. List three things the babysitter should not be doing in the top cartoon on p. 53.
19. What two categories of civil law are discussed in Chapter 11?
20. List three things you can do to stay safe online.